

© Минский институт управления

Vice-Rector for Research Valiantsina V. Hedranovich

PhD in Pedagogic sciences, Associate Professor.

Education

Higher education: Belarusian State University, Faculty of Mechanics and Mathematics. Qualification - Mathematician. Lecturer in mathematics.

PhD courses: Minsk Institute of Management, «Management in social and economic systems».

Labor activity

1974-1979 - student at Belarusian State University named after V.I. Lenin;

1979-1981 - educator, teacher of mathematics, Cherven district public education authority;

1981-1987 - part-programming engineer, senior part-programming engineer, deputy director for mathematical methods, Cherven district data-computing center;

1987-1994 - teacher of informatics, Cherven district public education authority;

Since 1995 up to date - senior lecturer, associate professor, head of the Department of Information technologies and Higher mathematics, vice-rector for research and international affairs, vice-rector for research at Minsk Innovation University.

Academic qualification

Academic degree - PhD in Pedagogic sciences.

Dissertation issue «Management of students' educational activity on the basis of information and communication technologies».

Associate Professor.

Research interests

Management of students' learning and cognitive activity.

Information and communication technologies in educational process.

Competence-based approach to experts training.

Subjects

Financial Computer Science, Basics of Computer Information Technologies, Application data processing systems, etc.

Main scientific works

Valiantsina V. Hedranovich has more than 100 published scientific and methodological works.