

© Минский институт управления

XXII International scientific conference “Management in social and economic systems” took place in Minsk Institute of Management

17th May 2013 - XXII International scientific conference “Management in social and economic systems” took place in Minsk Institute of Management.

Representatives of 46 legal entities took part in the conference. Among them 28 representatives from the Republic of Belarus and 18 from abroad.

Altogether the program of the conference included 126 reports of scientists, specialists, PhD students and Master’s degree students, including 57 reports made by representatives of Minsk Institute of Management, 44 reports made by participants from other higher education institutions and organizations of the Republic of Belarus, 25 reports made by participants from abroad.

More than 50% of the participants have degrees and titles including: 14 Grand PhD holders, Professors, 59 PhD holders, Associate Professors.

Plenary meeting.

*Nikolay Susha, rector of Minsk Institute of Management,
Grand PhD in Economics, Professor, welcomed participants of the conference*

 Plenary meeting reports

*Plenary meeting.
Report of Nikolay Susha, rector of Minsk Institute of Management,
Grand PhD in Economics, Professor*

Plenary meeting.

Report of Zenona Atkočiūnienė, prof. dr., head of the Department of Information and Communication at Vilnius University

Plenary meeting.

*Report of Boris Zheliba , Grand PhD in Economic sciences, Professor, head of the Department of Finances and Crediting,
Minsk Institute of Management*

Participants of the conference

📅 21.05.2013 📖 0

Other news:

- Minsk Institute of Management in January Ranking Web of Universities 2014
- The 11th International Conference "Lifelong Learning: Continuous Education for Sustainable Development" \(Stage 2\) took place in Minsk Institute of Management
- New domain name of Minsk Institute of Management e-library